

Exercise 1

Instructions: Follow the directions and answer the questions.

1. What is the telephone number of The Mandarin restaurant?

What can you see from this restaurant?

About how old is this restaurant?

What street is the restaurant on?

2. How many blocks is it from The Mandarin to the ocean?

How about from The Mandarin to Pier 41?

3. Can I order the Beijing Dinner for just one person?

How much would it cost for two people?

If four people order the Beijing Dinner what extra dish do they get?

What is the most expensive meal on this page and how much is it?

4. Find at least two dishes with eggplant.

How much is the Chicken Fried Rice?

What is the cheapest appetizer?

Some dishes must be ordered at least five hours before the meal. What are the names of these dishes?

5. Imagine that you are a customer at The Mandarin restaurant. Write down the dishes that you would like to order and the prices. Decide how much money you would leave for a tip. Add the total amount for the meal and calculate the amount in the money of your country. Do you think that it is expensive or cheap? Would you like to go to this restaurant?

6. What is squab? Would you like to try it?
