This web site allows the consumer to take “virtual” tours (i.e., view 360-degree photos) of apartments and apartment complexes anywhere in the United States, comparing prices, amenities, etc. Prospective tenants can even search for properties near given universities and military bases, arrange household-goods shipping, rent furniture and perform other functions. The lesson is heavily oriented toward writing descriptions and comparisons and contrasts of various properties, although there are also reading/research sections.

What shall I do?

1. On the front page of www.forrent.com, click on Search Apartments. On the next page, find this box (below) and choose Tampa in the state of Florida in the box (FL = Florida)

OR

search for apartments in your desired metropolitan area

FL, Tampa

and then click on . On the next page, you'll see a box full of “Selected Amenities.” Next to Select number of bedrooms, choose bedrooms and baths . Next, for the “Select Price Range,” select from to . Now go down to “Select required amenities,” and select Pool, cable/satellite and air conditioning. Click on See Refined Results >>>.

On the next page, choose one of the nice-looking apartments. Click on the picture. On the next page, look at the prices. How much is the rent for a two-bedroom apartment?

2. Do they state square feet of the apartment? (Look in the SQ FT column) Yes/No
3. Are pets allowed? Yes/No

Next, select the same criteria as you did for Lighthouse Bay. Do you remember? $500-$750/one bedroom and one bath/pool/cable or satellite/air conditioning. Click on See Refined Results. Choose an apartment complex that has a one-bedroom apartment for less than $750.

9. Name of apartment complex _____

10. Price for one bedroom/month _____

11. Square feet _____

12. Look at the amenities in the apartment complex and in the box below check the ones available.
